*"Our mission is to proclaim the Word of God, leading people to a saving
faith and a growing relationship with Jesus Christ."*

Matthew: Joseph's side of the story. There is a legal genealogy that traces Jesus back to Abraham through Joseph. Joseph struggles with the decision of what to do with his pregnant fiancé. An angel appears to Joseph in a dream, The angel tells him two things: God is the baby's Father, and Joseph is to name the boy Jesus, "for he will save his people from their sins."

Luke tells Mary's side of the story. It starts with the birth of John the Baptist to Mary's relative, Elizabeth. An angel appears to her. The angel tells her two things: God is the baby's Father, and she is to name the boy Jesus, "He will be great and will be called son of the Most High." Then she leaves for three months, before returning in time to go to Bethlehem with Joseph.

There is more to each story, and each continues to tell different events. Matthew tells of wise men following a star, of Herod's attempt to kill the threat to his throne, and the family's flight to Egypt after Joseph's second angelic visit. Luke tell of a census, of shepherds, angels, and a manger. Luke tells us the baby was taken to the temple for ritual's sake, and that Mary "treasured these things in her heart."

These do not make anything like a contradiction. It's just two people giving their perspective on a story, filling in the blanks for each other. They share the significant things. The couple is Joseph and Mary, the baby is Jesus, and He's born in Bethlehem. It's the same story.

What jumps off the page as we compare the two renditions is that both receive angelic visits, with essentially the same message. This is God's Son, and you will name Him Jesus.

Jesus was not an uncommon name in Israel at that time. They say the most common name was Simon; as in Simon Peter. Jesus was down the list somewhere, but it was still a fairly normal name.

Though a common name, Jesus is a name with uncommon meaning. It means to deliver, or to rescue. God wanted there to be no doubt about His Son's purpose. "You shall call him Savior, because that's what He's coming to do."

Operation Christmas Child Report

As we had been advised, things picked up quite a bit this year over last, as people get used to the idea of a drop-off center in Davenport. TBF donated about 120—we're not sure of the exact count, since boxes kept trickling in. We shipped a total of 556 boxes, well more than double the amount we received and shipped last year.

A big thank you to Annie Ricketts for organizing and staffing this ministry, and to everyone who pitched in to give her a hand.

New Directories are In!

Our Church in pictures! If you have a box at church, your directory is in the box. If you don't have a box but would like a directory, give us a call.

Thanks to all of you who responded with good up-to-date pictures. They really make a difference.

Building Project Report

As you look north of the current building, you see no trees and no stumps! Thanks to the efforts of Greg Bowman, Jim ‘Tree-slayer’ Buchanan, and the Eaton men, that job is done. Many others showed up for branch and leaf clean up; thanks for your help as well.

The logs and larger branches are cut up, split, and partially stacked. The Elders have designated this firewood for use by a specific church family for next year.

Ground preparation for the foundation has been started in a small way. Look for that to proceed as our skilled workers have time and equipment available. We’d like to get the prep work done before the ground freezes.

Thanks for your donations for this project. As shared at the Annual Business Meeting, over $9,000 came in to the Building Fund this last year, without much in the way of requests for money.

Please pray for this project daily! Let us move ahead, accomplishing God’s will.

Awana

I remember a kids’ song that includes the line, “God likes fun ‘cause He loves me so He thought up what fun could be and I love Him ‘cause He’s the one who makes fun so much fun.”

Not everything about learning to know and love Jesus is fun, but Awana helps us to find the fun in it!

Special Nights in December:

December 5	Sports Night
December 12	Penny Parade
December 19	Nativity Scene Night

Penny Parade is about remembering our Awana missionaries, Jim and Bev VanMersbergen, at Christmas time. We ask kids and leaders to bring in change (not just pennies) to send as a gift to these faithful people. (we don’t send the change, we write them a check.) The color line that brings in the most money will win a prize.

Have a great Christmas and a safe time off. After that, we’ll see you next year (January 9: Middle of Summer Night)!
