Feliz Cumpleaños!

Mexican Pastor Vicente Reyna turned 75 on February 17. Congratulations!

From Morock's Momentitos

We trust this finds you prospering in Christ. We are fine here in Friant. God has been very good to us and we are grateful.

Everything is new. This is an interesting concept. In January we celebrated an anniversary of sorts. It was 28 years ago (January 1991) that we crossed the border into Mexico to live. In April we will complete 30 years as missionaries. But, we feel like kids starting over from scratch.

It is likely no coincidence that my reading has me in the book of Joshua. We are occupying the land that God gave us. We are counting on God to give us explicit directions and He has. His word is replete with instructions for the church. His word gives a pretty complete job description for the pastor. His Word guides us in our relations with our neighbors to the inclusion of telling us who are our neighbors. We thank God for His word. It is, indeed, a lamp unto our feet and a light unto our path.

Thank you for your prayers, support, and encouragement. They mean a lot to us and we appreciate you. Yours by grace,

Bruce & Lynda

4 States in 2 Weeks

Brad and Shilo are both taking a trip to Florida to participate in a Crisis Debrief Counseling seminar as part of our ministry preparedness. So we are taking the whole family with us. The kids will be staying with some newly-met friends in Florida while we are in meetings.

Then when the week is over, we will head up to Delaware to visit Brad's dad and family for the week of the kid's Spring Break from school. We are praying for some quality grandparent and grandkids time while my dad is still feeling well.

Please pray for travel safety for our family as we leave Friday (Feb 22) to drive from Chihuahua to Texas, fly from Texas to Florida, then from Florida to Delaware, then fly back to Texas, and finally drive back down to Chihuahua once again--all within 2 week's time. Pray also that we will remain healthy while visiting my dad during chemo. Thank you.

In Christ, Brad for the Family

Back in Siberia

Jami and Anneka arrived on the second day of the largest Buryat holiday called "Sagaalga" or "White month". This is a Buryat holiday with many great traditions of celebrating with family and showing respect to older generations, but also has many spiritual aspects where local Buddhist and spirit worship comes out. We often feel spiritual heaviness during this time and really need prayers.

Please pray with us for:

- opportunities to use the holiday to connect with friends and neighbors.
- openness from people to think about why they do things and if there is a better way.
- for our partners S&Y and us as we will help them host another "white month party" for our neighbors in Spring Village.

Happy White Month!

Leif and Jami

Dynamic Speaker. Authentic Worship. Incredible Giveaways. Mouthwatering Food.

We expect the money we already have to build our Fellowship Hall and make it usable, but not to be enough to remodel the Sanctuary or finish the hall. Even as its time to start the work, it's time to restart our fundraising efforts.

Please support the Church yard sale on May 18; but also prayerfully consider adding to your offering a portion designated for the Building Fund.
